

Forensic Consulting – Associate/Senior Associate

Who We Are

Founded in 1958, Hemming Morse, LLP is a national leader providing forensic and financial consulting services. We are based in California, with employees in offices in San Francisco, San Mateo, Los Angeles, Concord, Santa Rosa, Fresno, and Chico. Hemming Morse handles complex and high-profile assignments that are local, regional, national, and international in scope.

We work in a team environment to assist our clients and legal counsel respond to litigation, merger and acquisition disputes, fraud investigations, and regulatory compliance matters. Our clients range from small family businesses to Fortune 500 companies. The matters we work on involve diverse industries including technology, manufacturing, retail, real estate, healthcare, agriculture, and financial services.

Hemming Morse's Forensic Consulting practice is built on a foundation of highly experienced experts on a spectrum of business-critical topics, including accounting, valuation, finance, statistics, and economics. Our analyses are skillfully presented in both the courtroom and the board room.

Responsibilities

- Perform a wide range of research and analysis of financial, accounting, auditing, economic, and statistical topics
- Prepare detailed and complex spreadsheet and financial statement analyses
- Data analysis and interpretation of results using a variety of techniques, ranging from data aggregation to statistical analysis to complex data mining
- Perform document review and data research
- Assist in the preparation of client and expert reports
- Assist with administrative tasks related to engagement and office management

Qualifications

- 2 or more years of professional experience in forensic accounting, financial reporting, auditing, financial compliance, data analytics, or a related field
- Minimum of a bachelor's degree, preferably in accounting, finance, or a related field
- Working knowledge of US GAAP preferred
- Proficient in Microsoft Word and Excel. Experience with PowerPoint and Access helpful
- Advanced data analysis skills, such as proficiency with SQL, Stata, or other programs helpful
- Strong oral and written communication skills
- Must be able to think independently and work without supervision; must be able to work in teams
- Willingness and ability to work overtime when needed
- CPA (or CPA track) with audit experience preferred

Benefits & Compensation

- Hemming Morse is a mid-sized firm with many long-time employees. We offer excellent health and welfare benefits, including medical, dental, vision, life, and 401K with employer matching and profit sharing.
- Compensation for this position will be commensurate with experience level.

To Apply

Please email your resume to jobs@hemming.com with "Associate-2021" and your name in the subject line. Your cover letter should be incorporated into the body of the email.

Positions are located in our San Mateo, Concord, Fresno, and Los Angeles offices.

Hemming Morse, LLP, is an EEO Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, status as a protected veteran or national origin.